BLACK WAR CLOUD.

Chili and Peru are Now at Odds.

A Conflict Threatened over the Difficulty.

The Method of Colonization the Cause of It.

There is talk of another war between Peru and Chili and the military experts are greatly interested over the prospect. The danger of a conflict is so imminent that the arm and ammunition companies of this country have dispatched agents to the production scene of activity.

The possible war grows out of the approaching date when Chili will turn over to Peru the Province of Tarapaca, which has been in the possession of the Chilean government since the celebrated war with Peru. The terms of the peace, among other conditions on the part of the defeated Peruvians, permitted Chili to control the trade of Tarapaca for 10 years. As the time nears for the relinquishment of this privilege, Chili is said to have adopted a method of "colonization" somewhat known to the political states of this country. By stocking the province with people whose loyalty is emphatically in favor of a continuance of the Chilean rule, that government hopes to retain possession of Tarapaca. A "colonization" is to be made of the two countries the province will belong. This popular vote will be influenced in its results by the colonists, who have been sent into the province by Chili. It is not to be expected that Peru will be unmindful of the course pursued by Chili and it is not likely that the students of South American conditions that the vote thus secured will be allowed to stand unchallenged. They almost count on the insistence of the vote by Chili, and it is feared that each country, the controversy will be equally strong in their desires for the valuable province of Tarapaca.

DOUBLE DEALING.
Charged Against New Bedford Spinners' Union.

The Spinners' Union at New Bedford, Mass., held an important meeting, when the position was taken that the striking spinners return to work on a 10 percent reduction and if, at the end of four weeks after starting up the mills, the price still marked down at 2 cents, and the 5 percent reduction will be restored. The spinners discussed the proposition for two hours and voted to postpone a final vote for three weeks.
The spinners will hold another meeting to decide about the pay of the strikers, the four weeks they voted not to touch the funds in the treasury having expired. The spinners will be started out by classes of help meeting of the conference committee and now the other labor organizations claim that the spinners are dealing doubly with them. They have been told that the spinners are in league with the manufacturers, in the sense that it is the general supposition that if the spinners return to work and make a return to the 10 percent reduction.

RUSSIA DESIRES PEACE.
Policy of the Czar Said to Be Directed To This End.

The Berlin Bureau Courier has an interesting article on the Russian Minister, Dr.
Witte, who is in Abkhazia. He said that Russia's policy was one of absolute peace.
He regretted that war preparations continued despite the fact that the three most powerful nations in Europe were unanimous in their declaration for peace. Dr. Witte spoke also of Russia's purchase of railway materials abroad. He had often advised on purchase in Germany when prices were suitable, he said, to show his friendly feelings towards a neighbor; but the United States was competing strongly with Germany, especially in the manufacture of steam engines.

Dr. Cook's Party Back Home Again.

Story of the Ill-Fated Voyage of Steamer Miranda.

Log of the Expedition as Kept by One of the Crew.

Interested in Dr. Cook's Arctic expedition has been all the while by the landing of the in the fated steamer Miranda, and a party of her passengers, in Gloucester, Mass. They came in, on the Gloucester schooner Rigdon, Capt. Dickson on command. After a voyage of peril a collision with an iceberg so damaged the vessel that she was laid up for repairs, and later she ran on a reef and was lost. An attempt was made to tow the vessel home, but the iceberg was too great and she sank in mid-ocean, the crew having escaped by their lives. A log of the voyage, kept by one of the crew, is here.
